

Museum Renovation Work Begins!!!

The building contractor (All Jersey Mechanical & Construction, Inc.) has begun interior demolition.

Photo Date: July 29, 2010

The old baseboard electrical heaters, some of which were almost falling off the wall, are being replaced.

Photo Date: July 29, 2010

The original 1940s Men's and Ladies' rooms, neither of which met modern requirements for handicapped accessibility, are being gutted. By redesigning the restroom entrance location, architect Alice Deupree with the Jersey City firm of LWDMR & Associates PC, has combined the two original restrooms into one accessible unisex restroom.

Photo Date: July 29, 2010

The existing floor is being removed for replacement with new flooring material.

Photo Date: July 29, 2010